HAYS' CONDUCT IS CRITICISED

IMPROPER CONDUCT CHARGED AGAINST ASSISTANT SECRETARY IN REPORT

WILSON IS EXONERATED

Hay's Conduct Denounced As Repugnant to a High Sense of Honor and Integrity.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Aug 19.—The investigation of the Department of Agriculture's connection with the Florida Everglades drainage project ended today when the House of Representatives' committee on expenditures in the Department of Agriculture submitted to the House its findings in majority and minority reports of its members.

The conduct of Assistant Secretary Hays of the Agriculture Department, whose relations with former drainage engineer J. O. Wright were the subject of especial attention by the committee, was declared in a majority report presented by Chairman Moss, Democrat, to have been not in harmony "with proper standards of official propriety if not official rectitude.". The minority report made by Representative Sloan, of Nebraska, Republican, asserted on the other hand that the "unstable" majority conclusions were "more of a charge against the mental capacity and honesty of the committee members" than against Assistant Secretary Hays.

The majority report was signed by Chairman Moss and Representatives Flood of Arkansas, and Doughton of North Carolina, Democrats. The minority report was signed by Representative Sloan of Nebraska, who stated that Representatives Higgins of Connecticut, and Madden of Illinois, approved it. All are Republicans. Many features of the Agriculture Department's work in connection with the Everglades were attacked by the Democratic report, which arraigned the Department as vascillating and Engineer Wright as having been "on familiar terms with real estate promoters and speculators."

No real criticism of Secretary Wilson was contained in the majority report, the burden of criticism being laid on Assistant Secretary Hays. The minority report, on the other hand, acquitted the latter of the charges that he "despised all restraint and attempted to capitalize his official position and draw quick dividend from official opportunity."

The Everglades investigation arose through the charges that certain reports prepared by government engineers had been withheld from publication, with the inference that such action was in the interest of land dealers. C. G. Elliott, chief of drainage and Assistant Engineer Moorehouse, who were brought into the controversy, were found by the committee to have made an arrangement in connection with North Carolina swamp lands that was in violation of the law, but inasmuch as there was no profit intended in it the committee declared that the men had been too severely disciplined by Agricultural Department officials.

Assistant Secretary Hays' connection with the matter arose through a private arrangement he made with J. O Wright, former drainage engineer, for the handling of some drained land in North Carolina, which did not belong to the Government.

The majority report cited Wright's admissions of his familiarity with real estate promoters and of accepting development company stock and fees while engaged officially in making surveys to reclaim land. It declared that while thus engaged as a paid salesman and an interested purchaser he appeared before the North Carolina legislature as an official of the Department of Agriculture ostensibly to advise in the framing of drainage legislaation.

He later boasted, the report said, of securing the passage of a special statute there under which he was enabled to close a deal. His transactions were denounced by the majority as repugnant to a high sense of honor and integrity, which would justify dismissal if he were still in the Government service. The report added that his transactions were not brought to the knowledge of his superiors of the drainage division.

The majority report cited testimony regarding frequent conferences of Assistant Secretary Hays and Engineer Wright, who has since become state drainage engineer of Florida, concerning the purchase and sale at a profit of the bed of Lake Matta muskee, N. C.

Mr. Wright, the majority declared, did not seem to realize the impropriety of his own conduct. In view of his confidential relations with Mr Hays the majority "found it difficult to escape the conviction that Mr. Hays was in full possession of the facts relative to Wright's deals and transactions when they were being negotiated," and that Hays should have condemned them rather than to have encouraged them.

"It is useless," the majority added, "to frame regulations for the government of employes, many of whom work for low salaries, and permit those in high position to despise all restraint. This is particularly true when the offense is to capitalize official position and collect dividends from official opportunity. Your committee has no authority to deal further with this matter. It calls the particular attention of Secretary Wilson to the record."

GRAND JURY WILL BE RECONVENED

Two Prisoners Wish to Plead Guilty So That They May Start Terms Immediately

Judge Martin ordered the grand jury reconvened next Wednesday to return indictments against two prisoners who wish to plead guilty and begin serving their sentences. It is expected that the jury will remain in session only a short time.

This afternoon the case of B. A. Lester, charged with unlawfully engaging in the business of liquor selling at Electra, is on trial in the district court. It is probable that before court adjourns for the term, trials will be given to all the prisoners now on the felony side in the jail, and an effort will be made to reach as many of the other felony cases as possible, so that the docket will probably be nearly clean when adjournment is taken.

COLONEL READY FOR FIGHTING

THREE CORNERED FIGHT

Teddy Chuckled When Heard of Democratic Nominee Statement Saturday.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 19.—Delighted with his reception in Rhode Island and Massachusetts, Colonel Roosevelt returned to Oyster Bay to remain at home until Wednesday, when he will leave for Wilkesbarra, Pa.

Governor Wilson's speech at Seagirt, Col. Roosevelt said, interested him largely on account of what the Governor had to say about the Progressive party. The Colonel chuckled at the Governor's statement that he was discontent with the old parties which had led to the formation of the Progressive party as well as the feeling "that men have gone into blind alleys and came out often enough."

"Why, some one told me that I couldn't have defined the Progressive movement as well as that myself," exclaimed the Colonel. He thought he saw in Gov. Wilson's speech the result of the stand which the Progressive had taken. The Colonel added he wished to speak only in a kindly way of Gov. Wilson. He made it plain, however, that he was prepared for a fight with no quarter, should the campaign shape itself into a hard-hitting contest.

Col. Roosevelt said he believed that the three-cornered fight was developing into a two-sided contest.

The announcement of plans for his Western campaign tour, Mr. Roosevelt said, had resulted in requests for speeches from hundreds of sources. He wished to make it clear he said that he was unable to accept these invitations in the comparatively short period allowed for a trip of that length.

"All I can do," he said, "is to show my intentions and good will by visiting the various States and speaking once or so in each one."

On reaching Memphis he said he would probably take a week's trip in the South, speaking in Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina and perhaps a few other States.

PASSENGER WILL HAVE MR. KEMP'S SYMPATHY.

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 19.—A passenger on the M. K. & T. road was robbed of his trousers containing $280 at Osage. He was asleep in the Pullman and someone cut the screen at the window where he was sleeping and fished out his trousers. When he awoke about an hour later, he realized that his money and trousers were gone. He inquired all along the aisle to see if any of the men on the train had an extra pair of trousers and received a negative reply. Finally the negro porter offered him a pair of rather worn trousers. When the passenger got to Oklahoma City he wired for money to his wife in Kansas City and notified the police of the robbery.

MEXICAN JOAN OF ARC AT JUAREZ SUNDAY.

Juarez, Mexico, Aug. 19.—For a few hours Sunday a Mexican Joan of Arc was the dictator of this town. With ten rebel soldiers marching at the heels of her horse she rode up to the police station and disarmed the provisional chief of police and six of his men. The rebels rode away mounted on the policemen's horses. The woman fearlessly entered stores and demanded and received provisions and then shortly before daylight she rode out of town with her admiring followers.

She is said to be the wife of Colonel Lazero Alanis, rebel commander operating around Palomas. It is believed she has gone to join her husband after her raid on this town which is unprotected save for a few police installed at the departure last week of Orozco's rebel army.

Clothed in a khaki riding suit and riding a white horse, the young woman dashed here and there through the town collecting the stragglers in the rebel ranks. Her raid on the police station was an utter surprise. The police meekly surendered their arms.

$200 PER ACRE FOR OIL LEASES

FARMERS REAP HARVEST

Little Land Had Been Leased In That Section and Farmers Get Full Benefit of Strike.

C. Birk, J. F. Boyd, Chas. Clark and E. H. Ratky came down from the Park this morning. The party together with W. R. Ferguson of this city, had visited the Eeds oil well, located six miles northwest of Iowa Park, and report that the farms located in that neighborhood are being leased very rapidly, the leases bringing the owners all the way from $65 to $200 per acre for the first year, with the usual one-eighth royalty clause included.

Mr. Clark was one of those who took a lease on 80 acres that runs up to within 200 feet of the Eeds well at $200 per acre.

The well continues to flow through an eight-inch pipe at intervals. After the pipe is reduced it is expected that the flow will be more regular. All were convinced that the Eeds well is going to prove a splendid producer and the average of 200 barrels per day, as given in Sunday's Times, is considered a very conservative estimate.

At the time the oil sands were struck in the Eeds well, not a great deal of the land in that vicinity had been leased. As a result the owners of the land are obtaining more fancy prices for leases than would have been the case had they leased before the well was located.

The bringing in of this well, therefore, is an exceedingly fine proposition for the owners of the farms in that immediate vicinity and will put into their pockets thousands of dollars of lease money—more than the farms are valued at for agricultural purposes, perhaps.

MRS. BELMONT DOING HER OWN MARKETING

By Associated Press.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 19.—Mrs. O. P. Belmont is doing her own marketing this summer, as a protest against a system of petty graft, which she says has become well nigh universal in the households of the wealthy summer colonists here.

"This system of graft by which the servant profits at the expense of the employer, is wrong," said Mrs. Belmont, "we pay our servants good wages, for which they are expected to do a certain service. It is certainly unfair for them to expect to make a large sum of money on commissions that are bound to come out of the pockets of their employers."

Coal Prices Higher.

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 19.—Coal dealers of this city today predicted that prices per ton this coming winter throughout Texas will be 25 to 50 cents higher.

The increase will go into effect September 1. The reasons given are that mine operators will demand an increase at the mine and because of a big shortage in cars during the crop movement and a consequent short supply of coal in market. Wood will likely sell at the same prices.

SENATOR FALL REFUTES CHARGE

DECLARES ABSURD AND RIDICULOUS CHARGE THAT HE CAUSED PEACE FAILURE

CONDITIONS ARE WORSE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 19.—Conditions in Mexico were related to the Senate today by Senator Fall of New Mexico, who arose to a question of personal privilege to declare "absurd and ridiculous" a statement purporting to have come from President Madero that Mr. Fall had caused the failure of peace negotiations between the Mexican government and Orozco. Fall denied he ever had any connection with Orozco regarding the peace negotiations.

Present conditions in Mexico could not last much longer, he said.

"Senator Culberson of Texas received a telegram from Secretary Knox dated July 30, saying conditions in Mexico were growing better. "I have information before me at the present time that the statements are unfounded. My sources of information are superior to those of the State Department but I cannot divulge the names of the parties."

Senator Fall declared that in several mining camps in Mexico, owned by Americans and where there were hundreds of American citizens, the miners had banded together, armed themselves and served notice on the Mexican government that they would protect themselves.

"Many towns in Texas and Arizona along the border, citizens have bought arms and decided that persecution and killing of Americans must cease," Fall said.

He also said he had information that at Bisbee, Arizona, two hundred Americans had armed themselves and were ready to cross into Mexico to protect Americans. Senator Fall declared that the United States should recognize the insurgents. Senator Culberson opposed such a course and said:

"I do not believe that the Mexican situation justifies intervention by the United States. It would be an act of war."

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C., Aug 19.—A proposed release of the 257 Apache prisoners of war at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, held for participation with Chief Geronimo in the massacre of twenty-six years ago brought on a fight in the Senate today which defeated the conference report of the Indian appropriation bill. The bill carried an item of $200,000 to transfer the prisoners to Mescalero, New Mexico, Indian agency and provide them with land.

Senators Fall and Cateron of New Mexico and Smith of Arizona opposed the project. Senator Fall declared the descendants of families massacred lived near the agency and he predicted outbreaks between the Indians and white settlers if the survivors of the band were allowed to become free settlers in New Mexico.

SCHEPPS REACHES NEW YORK CITY

WHITMAN RETAINS HIM

Prisoner Evinced None of the Fear of the "System" Atrrtibuted to Him—Placed in a Cell.

By Associated Press.

New York, Aug 19.—Sam Scheppes alleged paymaster of the murderers of Herman Rosenthal, arrived New York this forenoon and was taken immediately to the West Side prison, where he will be placed in a cell.

Although held only as a material witness, District Attorney Whitman who came down from Albany with Scheppes, said he would be arraigned in court as a matter of form.

There was a clash between the district attorney and police headquarters when the train pulled in. A detective who said he had been sent by Police Commissioner Dougherty tried to take charge of the prisoner but Mr Whitman would have none of it. Mr. Whitman joined the party at Albany early today and greeted Scheppes in a drawing room car. They clasped hands cordially and although Scheppes was a bit nervous he told the prosecutor that he would tell freely all he knew of the events which led up to Rosenthal's death.

Mr. Whitman regards Scheppes' testimony of importance as confirming the story of Bald Jack Rose Scheppes was not in the murder car at the time of the shooting but he was in it earlier in the evening and according to Rose was paymaster of the murder crew.

The train bearing Scheppes reached Albany at 4:40 this morning. Mr. Whitman was waiting at Albany. Scheppes was taken from the train. Then Mr. Whitman suddenly decided to leave for New York immediately and a dash was made for the station. Notwithstanding the early hour a curious crowd followed Scheppes through the street.

He was one of the first up when Albany was reached though he retired after midnight. He ate a hearty breakfast and today evinced none of the fear of "system's" vengeance that has been attributed to him. He was dressed modestly, wore glasses and looked on the whole very much like a quiet little traveling salesman of studious bent.

It was learned today that for several months prior to the shooting of Rosenthal, officers of the district attorney have been quietly investigating graft in the police department. The big grafters, it is said, have been constantly shadowed for four months and the Rosenthal shooting simply hurried matters. From members of the district attorney's staff it was learned that a well known civilian and two and possibly four police inspectors are caught in the toils.

The district attorney has obtained information that a collector for one man high in police circles accumulated no less than $75,000 as his commission on collections in the last seven months. Speaking of the investigation into police graft a member of the district attorney's staff said "Every man in the ring is known and will be indicted. Not one of the biggest officers has taken a penny in the last four months without our knowledge. They have been shadowed and nailed."

The investigation into police graft started when Lieut. Becker through Rose, is reported to have attempted to get $150 from a private poolroom club. His demand was turned down and one of the members of the club informed District Attorney Whitman. There are reports that if indictments are brought against one police inspector he will turn state's evidence.

The indictments for police graft are not likely to be drawn until after the Rosenthal's indictments are found.

DESCRIPTIONS "LEFTL LOUIE" AND "GYP THE BLOOD" HERE

Descriptive circulars, with photographs of "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie" the two much sought New York characters connected with the Rosenthal case, have been received here and the local officers are on the lookout for anyone resembling them.

Constable Tom Pickett believes the men will come to Wichita Falls. According to Tom the men may be here now and if they aren't they soon will be. "All the bad men visit Wichita Falls some time or another," says Tom.

Is Human Race to Become Toeless?

Are we going to lose our toes?

That's what they said at the Chiropodists' convention out in Chicago. Dr. Ernest Graff of New York voiced the alarm over the wearing of tight shoes, and declared that if women did not change their footgear the sex would some day be toeless. Dr. I. J. Reis, vice president of the Illinois Association of Chiropodists, asserted that shoes are responsible for the bad condition of most women's feet. "The pump is the worst," he added. "The woman is balanced on her toes' ends, and her toes are all crumpled up like little dogs in a basket." And somebody else made the startling assertion that 98 per cent of American women are affected with various ills of the feet through wearing shoes that are too small.

All of which sounds exceedingly dismal. And unfortunately it is confirmed on solid local authority. The Chicago dispatch was shown to one of the most eminent surgeons connected with the Orthopedic department at the New York Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled. This gentleman, who did not wish his name to be used, nevertheless based his statements on a wide professional knowledge and experience. He declared:

"Practically all the women in New York have deformed feet, and the only reason for their condition is the unnaturally shaped shoes which they wear."

"And do you really believe there is a likelihood of their toes disappearing?" he was asked.

"The toes have already begun to disappear," he replied. "They have been squeezed and crowded together for so many generations that they are weaker and smaller today than ever before. But what's the use of dwelling on the possibility of their complete disappearance? That is the future. If we confine our attention to the present we shall find conditions bad enough.

"All you have to do is to go and walk on Fifth avenue if you have any doubts as to the way women maltreat their feet—and the results. Any woman knows the shape of her unconfined foot. What a difference there is between that and the expensively shod result tripping down the avenue! But one need not confine oneself to the fashionable quarter of the city. Go to a public bathhouse and see if you can find one perfect, undistorted pair of feet. If you are lucky, you may fine one pair; I am sure you will not discover more."

"Do you think woman should go barefoot?" was suggested. "Or wear sandals?"

"Neither violent innovation is at all necessary," the doctor protested, rather impatiently. "Who would think of going barefoot on our snowy sidewalks? Absurd! But why should not women wear shoes exactly like those worn by men?

"A woman's foot and a man's foot are eactly the same shape, unless, indeed, the woman's has been artificially deformed. The only difference is that a man's foot, like the rest of him, is on a larger scale. But he wears sensible and well shaped shoes, with heels high enough to give a proper support to the arch and low enough not to destroy balance.

"A woman's shoe should be modeled on the same plan, instead of curving aimlessly and arbitrarily, as they do. I want to make this clear—a woman who refuses to buy shoes too small for her is yet likely to deform her feet, because nearly every model offered her is utterly wrong in shape.

"Flat foot, the painful demority which is so rapidly increasing among us, is made worse, if it is not orlginally caused by improper shoes. The broken arches, instead of being supported, are thrust still further out of position. Women's shoes are simply impossible."

And yet the head of a big shoe store rebels against the medical verdict. This man carries in his stock both expensive and low priced footgear. That is to say that both wealthy women and working women are his customers.

"Every one connected with the shoe business knows that women's feet are growing larger," he declared. Fifteen years ago the size of which we sold the most was No. 3. Today it is No. 5. That is, the average woman's foot is full two sizes larger than it was formerly.

"One reason for this change is the fact that women have gone into business. The woman who is on her feet all day behind the counter or in the factory must be comfortably shod. And she cannot wear the old worn out slippers by means of which the houseworker used to comfort her aching feet. The business woman must wear neat, new shoes, but they must also be comfortable.

"The well to do woman has taken up sensible shoes for still another reason. She cannot go in for athletics wearing narrow-toed boots a size too small for her. She cannot play golf or tennis, she cannot even go for a long walk if her feet are cramped and pinched. So she makes a virtue of necessity, and the broad, bulldog toed shoe becomes the latest fashion.

Of course, too, if a woman is on her feet a good deal they are apt to spread. If she continues to buy shoes which fit she must choose a larger size, or at least a broader model.

"While we are not yet selling sandals for a general wear—they would be rather impractical in this climate during the winter—the shoe of today is modelled more and more closely on the lines of natural foot."—New York World.

Crowds Jeered Couple.

Carrollton, Ill., Aug. 19.—Handcuffed together, Wm Burley, a mechanic, and Mrs. Wm. Evans, another man's wife, with whom he eloped, were paraded through the main street last night while jeering crowds looked on. The line of march led from the railroad station to the Green county jail. Burley is 33 and the woman is 27.

Like captives chained to a Roman chariot, the pair marched through a double file of men and women, their humaniliation being all the greater because they were personally acquainted with most of the on-lookers. The couple were brought from Lynn, Mo., a little town opposite Grafton.

Mrs. Evans' husband sold a house two weeks ago for $700. The couple took this when they eloped.

After Mrs. Evans and Burley were placed in jail Evans visited her. After a short conference they hugged and kissed each other.

Evans told the authorities he had forgiven his wife. She was then released.

Burley is still in jail. The money has not been recovered.

San Saba—The tenth annual fair closed last week after four days of the largest attendance in the history of the association. Approximately twenty thousand visitors were admitted to the grounds. The features of the fair were the excellent exhibits of farm products and livestock which were housed for the first time in the new and commodious display hall recently erected.

DEMOCRATS IN MIDSEASON FORM

ILLNESS OF M'COMBS

Has Caused Temporary Slackening Up, But He Had Looked Far Ahead and Others Take Up Work.

Special to the Times.

New York, Aug. 19—Heretofore the leaders of the National political campaigns have been well satisfied if their organizations were in good running order by the first or second week in September.

In the remarkable campaign that is now before the American voters there is one incident that the old line politicians are marveling over and that is the condition of the National Democratic committee.

For more than a week on the fourth and fifths floors of the office building at 200 Fifth avenue, the National Democratic committee has been playing in midseason form. The bureaus have been organized, and manned in each detail. The corps of employees have fallen into their respective duties like old timers.

The average voter who is being appealed-to, perhaps does not realize the vast amount of work required to educate him to the views of the respective leaders.

If there is anything in a flying start, Wilson and Marshall have certainly secured that start.

The Republican papers of New York City have commented daily on the scenes of activity around Democratic Headquarters and the deathlike silence that pervades at Republican and Progressive headquarters. But the Roosevelt headquarters are showing more activity than the Taft headquarters, but it must be remembered that the Bull Moosers are trying to organize a new party and have been unable to launch their campaign plans.

The temporary illness of Chairman W. F. McCombs might have caused a slackening up in the activity of the Wilson forces under ordinary circumstances, but this remarkable young man had looked far ahead and the bureau chiefs have gone rapidly ahead

Vice Chairman W. S. McAdoo has taken up the duties of Chairman McCombs and will fulfill them for the next week, as Chairman McCombs has been ordered to take a complete rest. His illness was brought about much by the pre-convention contest and then he insisted on giving all his time to the completing of the organization details at National headquarters.

Senator T. P. Gore of Oklahoma slowly rocks back and forth in his rocking chair, quietly giving his orders on organization to a score of able assistants. The blind senator has a cheering word and a smile or a word of advice for everyone.

Henry Morganthau, chairman of the finance committee, and Treasurer Rolla Wells, have scoured each department for any false movements, until they have the headquarters organized on a thorough business basis.

The quick start of the Wilson and Marshall forces has resulted in a surprisingly large number of small contributors to the campaign fund. Never in the history of the party have the contributors displayed a greater willingness and enthusiasm than in the present campaign. Contributions as a rule are small, varying from one dollar up, but they are nevertheless welcome to Treasurer Wells.

Down at Seagirt, Governor Wilson is daily meeting dozens of delegations and hundreds of visitors who are promising him their loyal support. His preliminary speeches of the campaign show his clear grasp of the vital questions before the voters.

"It is not a question of winning now or ever," said Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity bureau, "but it is a question of how large and how impressive our victory will be. And here many people say that the Democrats have a better chance this time. We know that. We also know we are going to win. And we also think that we have a surprise for the Republicans and Bull Moosers in demonstrating that not a slight majority, but an overwhelming number of people favor Wilson and Marshall."

Cotton pickers will soon be in demand in this section of the State The gins are preparing to handle the largest crop this county has ever produced, and from the condition of the crop the gin men are not far wrong in their estimate.

Judging from the great number of fruit jars now being sold, the canned goods merchants are not going to enjoy a very good business in this vicinity for the next year Nearly every family is taking advantage of the abundant peach crop, and the low price at which they are selling by putting up a year's supply

The tariff bill on wool, vetoed the other day by President Taft, was identically the same bill he vetoed a year ago His reason then for vetoeing the bill was that the law was framed before the tariff board had made its reports. So far as known that was the only reason given the people. His reason for vetoeing the bill the last time was that it would ruin the wool business. The bill slaughtered by the president provided or imposed a duty of twenty-nine per cent ad valorem on wool, and a tax of forty-nine per cent on woolen cloth.

Texas cotton raisers have in Peter Radford, president of the Farmers' Union, and Ben B. Cain, vice president and general manager of the Gulf, Texas and Western railway, two men who have proven by their unselfish acts that they are true friends to the cotton raiser. These two men, almost by themselves have matured plans by which the cotton raiser is to be furnished money at the low rate of six per cent on cotton held for market By their act, millions of dollars will be saved to cotton farmers. Heretofore, it has been no easy task to secure money with cotton as security, even by paying as high a rate of interest as 10 per cent.

Clarence Darrow the great Chicago lawyer, was acquitted on the charge of attempting to bribe one of the jurors in the McNamara case at Los Angeles because there was no evidence upon which to convict, except that of the juror who accepted a part of the bribe money and then informed the district atorney of what he had done before he negotiated further with Darrow and his agents This, according to the charge of the court that tried Darrow, made the juror an accomplice, and as the testimony he gave in against Darrow was not corroborated by other witnesses, the jury was charged to not consider the bribed juror's testimony Darrow, without question of doubt, is a sharp, shrewd lawyer, and knows the law too well to ever be caught napping. Now that he has been acquitted, it is not for us to question the verdict of the trial jury It would have made no difference whether the jury had been composed wholly of the friends or of the enemies of the accused, it could have done nothing but acquit under the charge of the court who no doubt kept within the law Of course it is barely possible that there was a "frame-up" to catch Darrow, and if so the frame up worked to the extent of forcing Darrow to advise his clients to enter a plea of guilty after it had been laid for him, and he had been caught in it escaping punishment himself merely by a loop-hole, which he was guarded enough to leave open to provide a way of escape

ABOUT ALFALFA SOWING.

The Oklahoman publishes the following pointers about alfalfa growing which will be of interest in view of the fact that a number of Wichita county farmers are plannin gto sow alfalfa this fall

Alfalfa should be sown during the next six weeks, according to the state's best authorities on this subject So if you haven't your land ready now it should be prepared just as soon as possible

Land that will produce twenty five or thirty bushels of corn an acre, provided the subsoil will allow root penetration, and which does not overflow, will generally produce good alfalfa.

Plow the land six to eight inches deep. Then double disc, setting the blades of the disc almost straight, and weightin gdown to cause better penetration. This process packs the furrow slices more closely together and saves much moisture that otherwise would escape.

Smooth well with the harrow after disking, conserve the moisture after each rain and before sowing by harrowing. Do this especially if the sowing does not follow closely after preparation of the land

Do not sow until ther eis plenty of moisture in the soil to sprout the seed and support young plants until more rain falls Sowing should be done between August 20 and October 1.

Sow only clean strong seed Have the seed tested for germinating qualities the experiment station at Stillwater will make the tests without charge

The sowing may be done with an ordinary wheat drill by cutting down the feed Or it can be done with seeders of other kinds The important thing is to get an even distribution of seed over the field

Don't sow too deep Seed covered to an inch in depth is deep enough under ordinary conditions Be particularly careful about getting the seed too deep on sandy soil.

Don't sow with any other crop The alfalfa will have a hard enough time alone without fighting some other crop for moisture and food.

DINING WITH NEGROES.

Fort Worth Record.

The Rhode Island Progressive executive committee gave a dinner to Colonel Roosevelt at his hotel after tonight's speaking At the table with Colonel Roosevelt were Edwin P Tuttle chairman of the executive committee and a score of others including Julius Mitchell of Providence, and Dr John Matthews of Newport, negroes Three women, one of them a daughter of ex Gov Garvin attended the dinner as guests of the committee

This significant paragraph, from the Associated Press account of Colonel Roosevelt's visit to Rhode Island, will be highly edifying, no doubt to those Southern men who are herding with the Bull Moose

It is a mathematical maxim that two things that are equal to the same thing are equal to each other. Applied to social mathematics, the incident would appear to teach that negroes are socially equal to Colonel Roosevelt in Rhode Island. Colonel Roosevelt is socially equal to his followers in the South, hence the negro in Rhode Island is socially equal to the white man in the South.

It was said of the Booker Washington function in the White House that the negro educator happened to be present when President Roosevelt was served in his private office, and the circumstance was not to be regarded as a deliberate act of social equality There was no accident about the Rhode Island dinner; the two negroes present were invited, as were the three women, and the guest of honor no doubt was consulted. Indeed, he only applied in a social way the doctrine of his letter to Julian Harris of Atlanta, wherein he justified the exclusion of Southern negroes and the inclusion of Northern negroes in the new party. The educated and respectable Southern negro is as worthy of political and social recognition as the educated and respectable Northern negro, and the debased Northern negro is as abhorrent socially and as dangerous politically as the debased Southern negro The 'differentiation which Colonel Roosevelt makes is brazen hypocrasy

On the face of it the Rhode Island dinner was deliberately designed to flatter the negro in Northern doubtful states, and the shocking pity of it is that white women conspired with the politicians

Thus political desperation, deceit and frenzy join to make mockery of social selection and social purity. The circumstance will have no effect upon social views of the great body of white people North or South, but it will lead the unfortunate negroes to entertain false hopes which will be blighted in bitter disappointment, and it may tempt some of them to impudent adventures that will bring them to grief

The men who planned that dinner cannot be so stupid as not to understand this ultimate effect. Their recklessness, therefore, seems only to exhibit the desperadoism of the new party and its dangerous leader.

Common Sense.

"You can't pull watermelons from a gourd vine." either can you expect to be properly fitted in a suit of clothes by a man who doesn't know his business.

Most any ten year old boy can put a tape measure around your waist and tell you exactly what you measure, but that is such a small part of the game. If you want your clothes to look right "in the eyes of the man who knows," then you'll have to go to a man who has some knowledge of clohtes, who would know the very style garment that would be best suited to your paritcular build.

Just any "Tom, Dick or Harry" who pops up with a bunch of samples can't possibly have any idea of the kind and the style garment you should wear, they can give you a pair of pants with two legs and the coat will have two sleeves and a tail, and they can take your money all-right, but the thing is, do you look right. Think about these things, it's certainly worth your while to do so, if you want to appear just as well as you should.

We want you to know that we went through the enitre spring and summer season without one single misfit or even a twenty-five cent alteraiton. We sold clothes to the best dressed people in Wichita Falls.

We sold lots of them their second and third suits. Why? Simply because they were satiisfied, because their cloths fit them like a gentleman's clothes should fit and we can do the same thing for you, we know exactly what we are doing, we take all the responsibility, we don't ask that you allow us to alter and cut up a garment trying to fit you.

There are more than EIGHTEEN HUNDRED PIECES of new fall woolens in our house right now, ready for your inspection, the prices range from $20 to $50.

We don't carry any cheap stuff. We are more than satisfied for the other fellow to carry the low grades. When a man is particular enough about his appearance to go and select his cloth and have his clothes made up just to his liking, he is going to expect something in return. He wants service and style and he certainly will never be able to get either of these necessities out of a "$15.00 so-called tailored suit," there is nothing to it but dissatisfaction and regret.

Give us a trial is all we ask, and if we fail to make good these statements, you'll be the first man and the only man so far to go on our dissatisfied list.

Ask the best dressed man in Wichita Falls who made his clohtes for him and he will sight you to

EXCURSION DATE CHANGED

WILL BE RUN ON AUGUST 29th INSTEAD OF 28th ON ACCOUNT OF EXALL'S SPEECH.

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

Start Will Be Made At 7:45—Hollis Will Be Reached At 4:50 In the Afternoon

Final preparations have been completed for the trade excursion to be operated up the Northwestern railroad by the Young Men's Progressive League of this city. One important change has been made, i. e. the date has been changed to Thursday, Aug. 29, whereas it was originally planned to hold it on the 28th. The change was made on account of the 28th being the closing day of the Commercial Secretaries' Institute to be held here, one of the features of that day's program being a speech by Col. Henry Exall of Dallas, president of the Texas Industrial Congress.

It was originally suggested that the 29th would be a good day for the trip but some seemed to think that it would be too near the first of the month to secure the best results. However, in adopting the 29th as the day, three days are left for business men to get their accounts in shape, July having 31 days and the 1st of September falling on Sunday.

The tickets for the excursion will cost approximately $3.25. This will include everything. Of course each member will have to take care of advertising his own business

It is asked that those who desire to go or to know more about the trip phone the secretary at 965 where all the information desired may be had. This should be done at once as only ten days now intervene until the date of the trip.

Following is the official schedule which will be adhered to:

USE ENGINE IN THIEF CHASE

Oakland, Cal.—Pressing into service a switch engine, J. J. O'Connor, state railway policeman, pursued a burglar along the rails on the Oakland mole, caught up with the man after a four blocks' chase, engaged him in a hand to hand encounter and finally subdued and arrested him. The prisoner is Ed Rensen, and he is in jail charged with petty larceny.

The capture was made late last night. O'Connor noticed Rensen and another man removing about one hundred feet of lead pipe from a freight car at the Oakland mole. He ordered the men to halt, but they took to their heels and ran down the footpath along the rails. O'Connor followed, but the men were too fleet for him.

Seeing that he had no chance of capturing them on foot, he ran over to a train which was being switched about and ordered the engine driver to assist him. The train started after the burglars with O'Connor in the engine cab. When the engine was abreast of the fugitives O'Connor jumped off. He sought to arrest Rensen, but the latter fought. O'Connor was the stronger in the scuffle and downed and handcuffed his man. In the meantime the other man disappeared in the darkness.

are right. They are the best that can be sold for the money. They are kept right and sold so fast that today we have not a cigar that has been in the house sixty days. There is a great difference in smoking a cigar fresh from the moistening vaults and the one that has been allowed to become bone dry from lack of attention. The dry ill-kept cigar is the one that soon gets full of bugs, while a cigar properly kept is never attacked by insects. We give our cigar department the best attention of any thing in the house. If you are a connoisseur of the weed let us tease your taste with a smoke that always hits the spot.

NEW CITIZENS JOIN PROGRESSIVE LEAGUE.

One of the new and voluntary members of The Young Men's Progressive League is A. L. Warren who recently came here from Paris, Texas, and who is now manager of The Northwestern Compress here.

Mr. Warren is enthusiastic in his advocacy of Young Men's Progressive organizations in city building. He was a staunch member of the Young Men's League at Paris and as such participated in various movements which wrought beneficial results for the city.

The organization of a live band at Paris was one of the achievements of which the League there boasts, according to Mr. Warren. He also says that a campaign led by the Young Men's organization resulted in convincing telegraph and telephone companies that all down town wires should be underground and this result will soon accrue. Also Mr. Warren says ornamental street lights will be provided shortly in place of ordinary swinging arc lights. The league has secured a number of excellent factories for the town.

Mr Warren says the League had a rather humble beginning and that it was only recently possible to employ a man to devote all of his time to the work.

"I am glad to see," said Mr Warren, "that the Wichita organization has been able to do in the beginning what the Paris League was in a position to do only after several years of operation.

"You can count on me for any task, no matter how hard, and when you need me, just phone me. I made a talk at our league banquet the night I left and told them I lived in the best town in Texas. I was applauded. I then remarked that I was leaving for Wichita Falls the next day and that on my arrival there I would still live in the best town in Texas, and that was applauded too."

Rosenberg—The total assessed valuation within the Rosenberg independent school district aggregates $1,400,000, an increase of 100 per cent over four years' ago.

Falfurrias—The sum of $175,000 was paid recently for 9,000 acres of black land adjacent to the right of way of the San Antonio and Aransas Pass Railway and located between Midway and Alfred.

Fire Chief Stampfli, Engine Driver McClure and other members of the fire department are getting sadly out of practice lately on account of the small number of fires that have taken place within the last few months. In fact not a single fire of any importance has occurred in this city during the last two months and the department has responded to only one alarm, and the fire on that occasion was some trash burning in the same block with the city hall. This is indeed a record that any city should be proud of although the fire boys say that they are fast becoming stale without the excitement of a genuine run now and then.
